

SPEAKERS AND SPONSORS POLICY

The Forum of Executive Women (“The Forum”) is dedicated to leveraging the collective power of women’s leadership in the Philadelphia region through a variety of Forum meetings, programs and other events. In order to facilitate the engagement of highly qualified speakers for The Forum events, The Forum adopted the following Speakers and Sponsors Policy.

The Forum may engage a speaker for a Forum meeting, program or other event who is a Forum member or a sponsor of The Forum or who is affiliated with a Forum member or a Forum sponsor only if (i) The Forum’s Program Committee or another committee of The Forum responsible for planning such event believes that such speaker is highly qualified to present the topic selected by the applicable committee; (ii) the selection of such speaker is approved by the Chair of the applicable committee in consultation with the Executive Director and/or the President of The Forum; and (iii) such speaker has received, and agrees to comply with, The Forum’s Non-Solicitation Policy.

In addition, except as may be otherwise stated in writing in a sponsorship package, The Forum may accept sponsorship contributions from a Forum sponsor that may have a business interest in The Forum event (whether or not The Forum sponsor or such sponsor’s affiliate is a speaker at such Forum event) only if (i) the topic of The Forum event has been selected by The Forum’s Program Committee or another committee of The Forum responsible for planning The Forum event and (ii) the event’s content is fully controlled by the applicable committee.
